(Optional) Memorial/Honor Scholarships:

It is important for the American Indian Graduate Center to have an accurate profile of those being honored with a scholarship or endowment. This information is valuable for historical purposes, and for public relations needs. Please attach a brief description of the person being honored, and explain why this award was established. Please also provide career highlights, personal characteristics; special accomplishments and any other information of the person being honored; so that it may help a future scholar with a full understanding of the meaning of this award.
